

MARK SELBY

Mark Selby is a native of Oklahoma and Kansas now based in Nashville. He has established himself as a rare triple-threat talent: a gifted songwriter with serious guitar chops and a voice to match.

Songwriter: Selby has written more than 10 top-40 singles and 4 #1 hits, including the Dixie Chicks' Grammy-winning There's Your Trouble and Kenny Wayne Shepherd's Blue On Black -- Billboard magazine's 1999 Rock Track of the Year. Wynona, Trisha Yearwood, Lee Roy Parnell & Keb Mo, JoDee Messina and many others have recorded Selby's songs.

Recording Artist: Selby's latest, One Night in Bonn (ZYX, 2009) was recorded 'live' at the legendary German TV concert series Rocpalast. The DVD reached #1 at Amazon in Germany. Nine Pound Hammer (ZYX, 2008) garnered critical raves in Europe and the U.S., as did Selby's albums for Vanguard Records -- More Storms Comin' (2000) and Dirt (2003). Selby contributed to the Grammy-nominated Avalon Blues: A Tribute to Mississippi John Hurt (2001); his his single She's Like Mercury was the first charting rock single for the Vanguard label. A solo acoustic CD, Mark Otis Selby...And The Horse He Rode In On was released in 2006. His discography as a session musician includes releases by Wynona, Johnny Reid, Kenny Rogers, Jamie O'Hara and many others.

Live Performer: A virtuoso guitarist and dynamic live artist, Mark Selby has shared the stage with B.B. King, Jeff Beck, John Fogerty, Robert Cray, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Delbert McLinton, John Hiatt, the Fabulous Thunderbirds, Collective Soul, Kenny Wayne Shepherd, Levon Helm, Junior Brown, and many more. Selby has appeared on notable radio and television music programming including World Cafe, Mountain Stage, Woodsongs and Rockpalast (Germany), and continues to perform with his stellar backup band, as an acoustic solo artist, and in a duo with his wife and frequent collaborator, Tia Sillers.

"As a singer/songwriter, Mark Selby's in the same league as Bruce Springsteen, with meaty words, a compelling voice, and tracks that have more groove than a vintage vinyl record." --- AMERICAN SONGWRITER

"An electrifying performer."
--BLUES REVUE

"Selby earned his moment in the spotlight with his excellent debut, More Storms Comin'...his exceptional sophomore CD, Dirt, indicates that album was no fluke. No need for bells and whistles here -- the music does the talking."
--ROLLING STONE

"Mark Selby makes some of the most soulful noise coming out of Nashville."
--THE TENNESSEAN

"Simply put, 11 tracks of the best rock and roll we'll hear this year..."
--VINTAGE GUITAR

more information: markselby.com